

INTERNATIONAL TOP TALENT MATTERS

– How can we turn Denmark into an Attractive Career Destination for International Top Talents?

Tid: Monday December 2, 2019, 9.00-13.00

Sted: ATV, BLOX HUB, Fæstningens Materialgård, Frederiksholms Kanal 30, 1220 København K, Mødesal Los Angeles

---

9.00 Breakfast and registration

9.30 Welcome, todays program, Lia Leffland, CEO Danish Academy of Technical Sciences (ATV)

9.40 Presentation of ATV report: INTERNATIONAL TOP TALENT: A key ingredient in a leading science & engineering region, Vibeke Schrøder, Danish Academy of Technical Sciences (ATV)

9.55 Why do Danish Science & Engineering Companies need international talents?

Panel debate, moderator: Inge Berneke, S.V.P. Strategy, HR and Public Affairs, Lundbeck Foundation

- Adam Jones, Talent Attraction - R&D Unity Technologies | Nordic Talent Ambassador
- Elise Hauge Larsen, EVP, Chief People and Communications Officer, Lundbeck
- Christian Elling, managing Partner, Lundbeckfonden Emerge
- Mathias Gredal Nørvig, CEO SYBO

10.45 Recruitment of international talents to the universities

- Louise Vang Jensen, Lead Anthropologist, Is It A Bird (ISAB)

11.00 Pause

11.30 Why do we need international top talent in business as well as in science? And can the Danish Diaspora help promote Denmark?

- Professor Flemming Besenbacher, Chairman of Carlsberg Group, the Carlsberg Foundation, and Diaspora Denmark

11.45 How can Denmark become an even more attractive career destination for international talents?

Panel debate, moderator Lia Leffland, CEO Danish Academy of Technical Sciences (ATV)

- Jukka Pertola, President, Danish Academy of Technical Sciences
- Nikolaj Lublanski, Director Talent Department, Copenhagen Capacity
- Linda Wendelboe Duncan, Head of DI Global Talent
- Jesper Demming, Tax Partner, Global Employer Services, Deloitte
- Thomas Jakobsen, Direktør, Københavns Kommunes Kulturforvaltning

12.55 Wrap up, sandwich to go