

Shale gas in Denmark?

Time	April 8, 2015 kl. 12.00-17.00
Location	GEUS, Østervoldgade 10, 1350 Copenhagen K

Program

12:00-12:30	Registration and sandwich
12:30-12:40	Welcome Lars Stemmerik, Professor, KU, ATV
12:40-13:05	The Danish Shale gas resources Niels Hemmingsen Schovsbo, Researcher, GEUS
13:05-13:30	Perspectives for monitoring of gas emissions – 25 years of experience from Stenlille natural gas underground storage Troels Laier, Senior Scientist, GEUS
13:30-14:05	Groundwater monitoring and protection Robert Ward, Director of Groundwater Services, British Geological Survey UK
14:05-14:40	Lessons learned from North American experiences in shale gas exploitation William M Alley, Director Sci. and Tech., National Groundwater Association, US
14:40-15:10	Coffee break
15:10-15:35	EIA of exploration well for shale gas Marianne Marcher Juhl, Project Manager, Rambøll
15:35-16:00	Authority work in connection with shale gas exploration and abstraction Anne-Marie Vægter Rasmussen, Head of the Law Office, The Danish Nature Agency
16:00-16:50	Panel Discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Steen Gade, chairman, Parliament Committee on Climate, Energy and Buildings- Signe Beuse Fauerby, Energy and Environment Officer, The Danish Society for Nature Conservation- Noah Slide, Member Skifergas Nej Tak- NN, Member of Parliament, Parliament Committee on Environment Chaired by: Jens Christian Refsgaard, Professor, GEUS, ATV
16:50-17:00	Closure Lars Stemmerik, Professor, KU, ATV
17:00	Networking and refreshments

ATV would like to thank GEUS and Rambøll for sponsorships.